TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

Thank you for your interest in becoming a BuildForce E-Learning Distributor. BuildForce Canada is committed to providing online training for new and seasoned workers in the construction industry.

Our E-Learning Distributor Guide provides you with the information needed to quickly and easily start using our E-Learning Distributor Centre. Whether you are a new distributor or are transferring from your account on our old distributor site, this guide will show you how to purchase PINs, manage your PIN purchases and keep track of your learners.

This guide is organized into four sections, with each section focusing on a specific topic. In section one we'll provide you with a brief overview of the BuildForce E-Learning program. In section two we'll introduce you to the BuildForce Distributor Centre and show you everything you need to know to access your account and use the features you will find there. In section three we'll show you how your learners enroll in and access our e-learning courses using the PINs you've provided to them. In the final section we'll tell you how to get help and support.

SECTION 1: E-LEARNING PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Launched in 2005 by the Construction Sector Council (changed to BuildForce in 2013), the BuildForce E-learning Program provides online courses to learners through our e-learning centre.

All of our e-learning courses are administered through local distributors, whose learners are provided with access to our courses by obtaining a course PIN from the distributor. A course PIN is a unique code that is directly associated with the distributor and a specific e-learning course. To enroll in the course on the E-Learning Centre, a learner must use a PIN.

Distributors carry out all of their PIN purchasing and learner administration from their individual accounts on the E-learning Distributor Centre, a secure website that is connected to the E-Learning Centre.
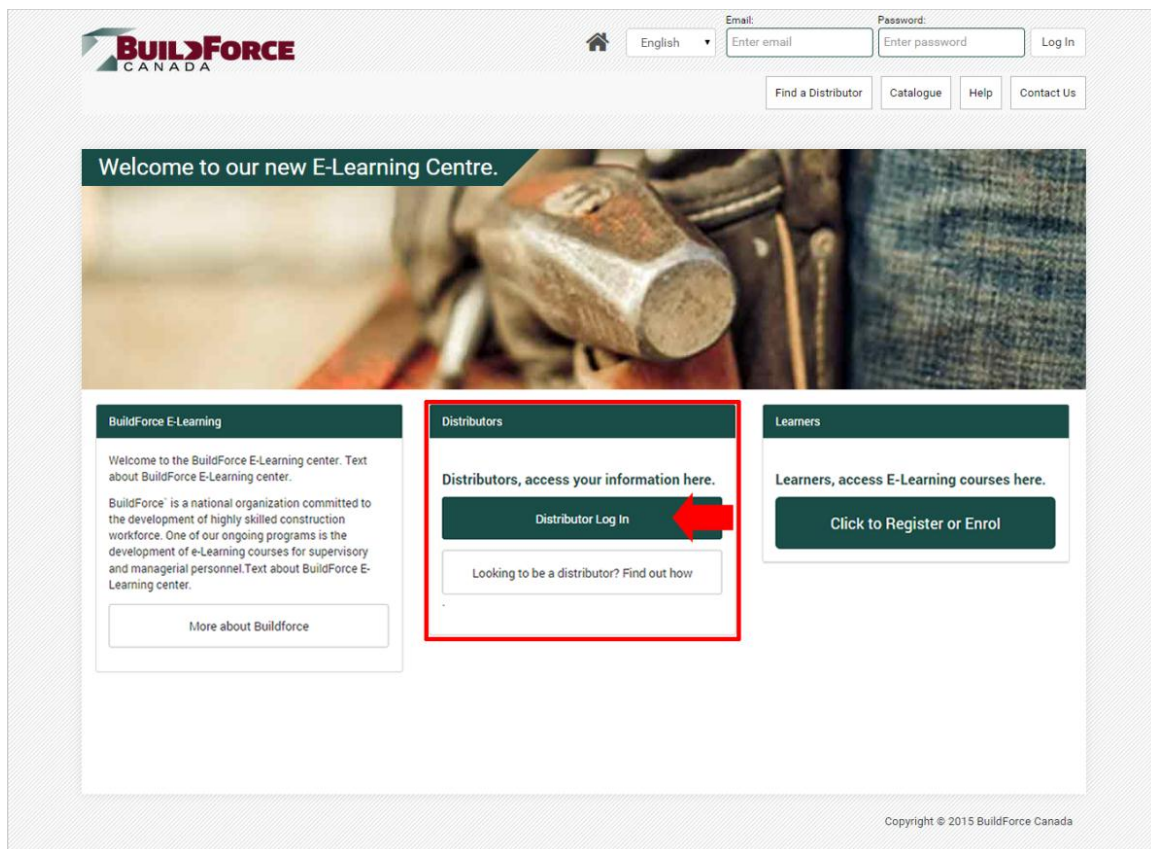

SECTION 2: DISTRIBUTOR CENTRE

In this section of the guide, we will show you how to access the Distributor Centre and introduce the range of user-friendly features available for you to purchase PINs, manage your PIN inventory, and track the progress of your learners once they've enrolled in courses. At the end of the section we've also provided instructions for updating your distributor account details.
